

Please do not weaken Indiana's Do Not Call policy. It is nice not being interrupted in the evening when spending time with family. If we want to allow someone to solicit us we have told them to do so. In reality we have told everyone to take us off of their lists because we like to make the initial contact with financial companies, charities, etc.